

CCUS

Jorre De Schrijver, Climate unit of the Flemish Government

Jorre holds a Master of Bioscience Engineering and a master's degree in Economic Policy at the KULeuven. Since 2010 he works at the Climate unit of the Flemish Government, where he focuses on industrial climate policy. In this regard Jorre is closely involved in the implementation of the EU emission trading scheme (EU ETS) in Flanders and the European decision-making on industrial climate policy.