

CHEM

Metin Bulut, Business Development Manager at VITO

Metin Bulut is Business Development Manager at VITO within the theme of Sustainable Chemistry: new value chains from biomass and CO₂ and process intensification. Together with an academic and industrial background in catalyst development, he obtained practical insight in techno-economical aspects of process intensification during his previous 5 year career as contract researcher, for mainly the chemical and pharmaceutical industry.