

GIMV

Thomas Dewever, Partner at GIMV

Thomas Dewever is a partner at Gimv, a private equity and venture capital company listed on NYSE Euronext Brussels. As a member of the Sustainable Cities platform, Thomas focusses on investments with a sustainable community impact. He has been involved in multiple transactions and active as board member in several portfolio companies including Contraload, Greenyard Foods, Hansea, Itineris, Lampiris and Walkro.

Prior to joining Gimv in 2009, Thomas worked in the Investment Banking Department of Credit Suisse in London, where he was involved in various M&A and capital market transactions across Europe and the Middle East. Thomas holds a Master's degree in Electromechanical Engineering (KU Leuven) and a MSc in Strategic Management from HEC School of Management in Paris.